SUBJECT QKACTIVE Material in Sao Paulo			MICROFILM
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
REF: Book Dispatch No. 4705, 13 August 1964 N/R 1. Book Dispatch No. 3562, 18 January 1963, which apparently describes QKACTIVE, was not received by <input type="checkbox"/> 2. The mailing list included with reference contains two Sao Paulo addresses: the Instituto de Pesquisas e Estudos Sociais (IPES) and Planalto. We do not know the extent to which IPES makes use of QKACTIVE propaganda. IPES is, however, a large organization with influence throughout Brazil, and it should remain on the list. Planalto, although on the list, is not receiving any material. Since Planalto is a news service with about 500 rural outlets in southern Brazil, this channel should be reopened. 3. There is a possibility that all QKACTIVE material is being confiscated by port authorities upon entry into this area, given the subject with which it deals and the current anti-Communist zeal of Brazilian officials. We will look into this, and, if such is the case, will try to do something about it. 4. <input type="checkbox"/> leaves to Identities 1 and 2 of reference the task of increasing contacts in Sao Paulo, since that apparently is the purpose of their trip. We will be glad to comment on their accomplishments if requested. Although we have not felt the effects of the QKACTIVE effort here, we believe it is a good idea and will help to offset the Communist indoctrination imposed on the nation during the Goulart regime.  <input type="checkbox"/>
